GM: All of the press except France's will be held over to go with the orders.

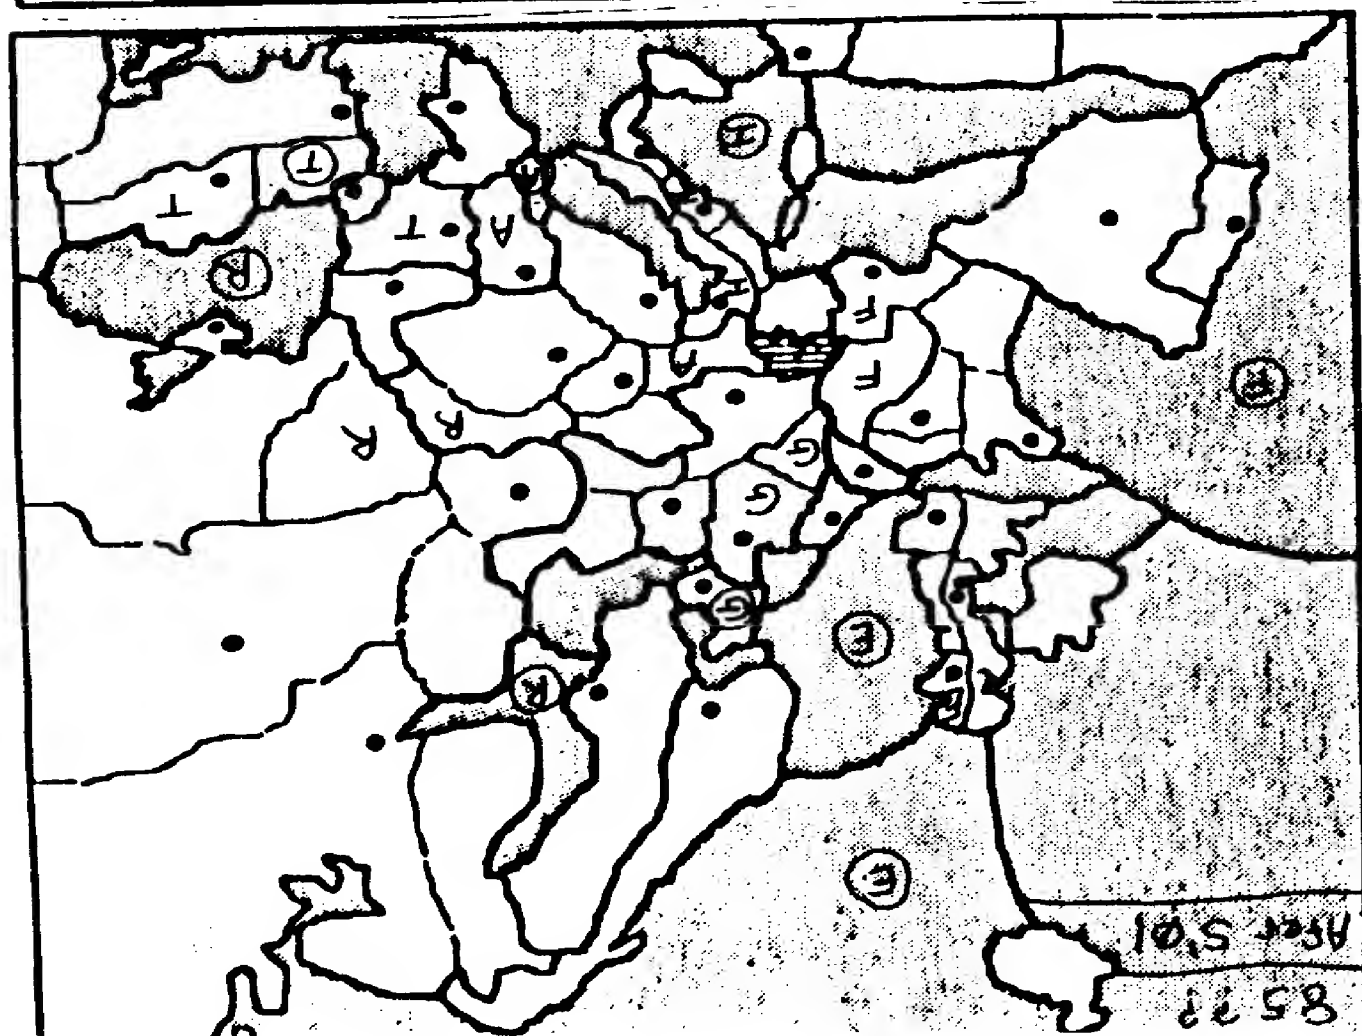

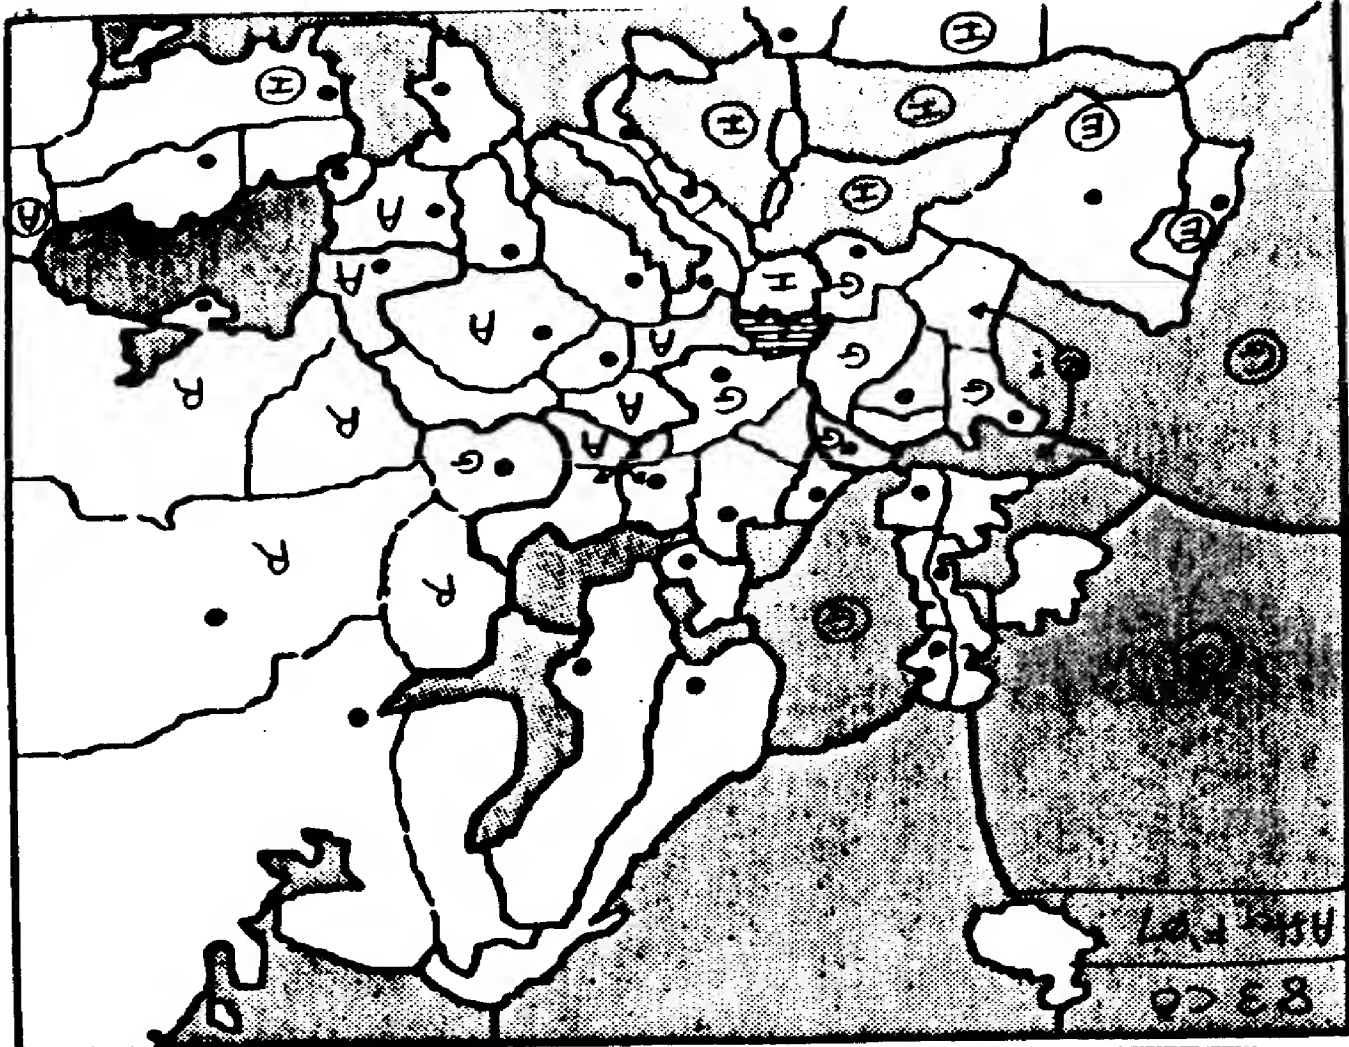

France-To All (inc GM): Apology & Protest. The Paris government wishes to apologize for the insanity of the Marseilles army. Any person living near the warm salty waters should join the navy and the army dismantled. However since it is prohibited in this wargame to create self-dislodgement the Paris authorities will order them [...] The Paris government further wishes to protest that in the same way it is illogical to self-dislodge a unit. - it is also prohibited and illogical to cut support of own units. The government wishes to quote from Rules for Diplomacy Co. 71 by Games Reseach Inc. Rule IX The Support Order sub 6. Note. "A player may not, by an attack, cut support being given by one of his own units." We therefore request the admission by the Russian unit in Mun to their defeat and hand Mun over to us.

Frederick - President of France

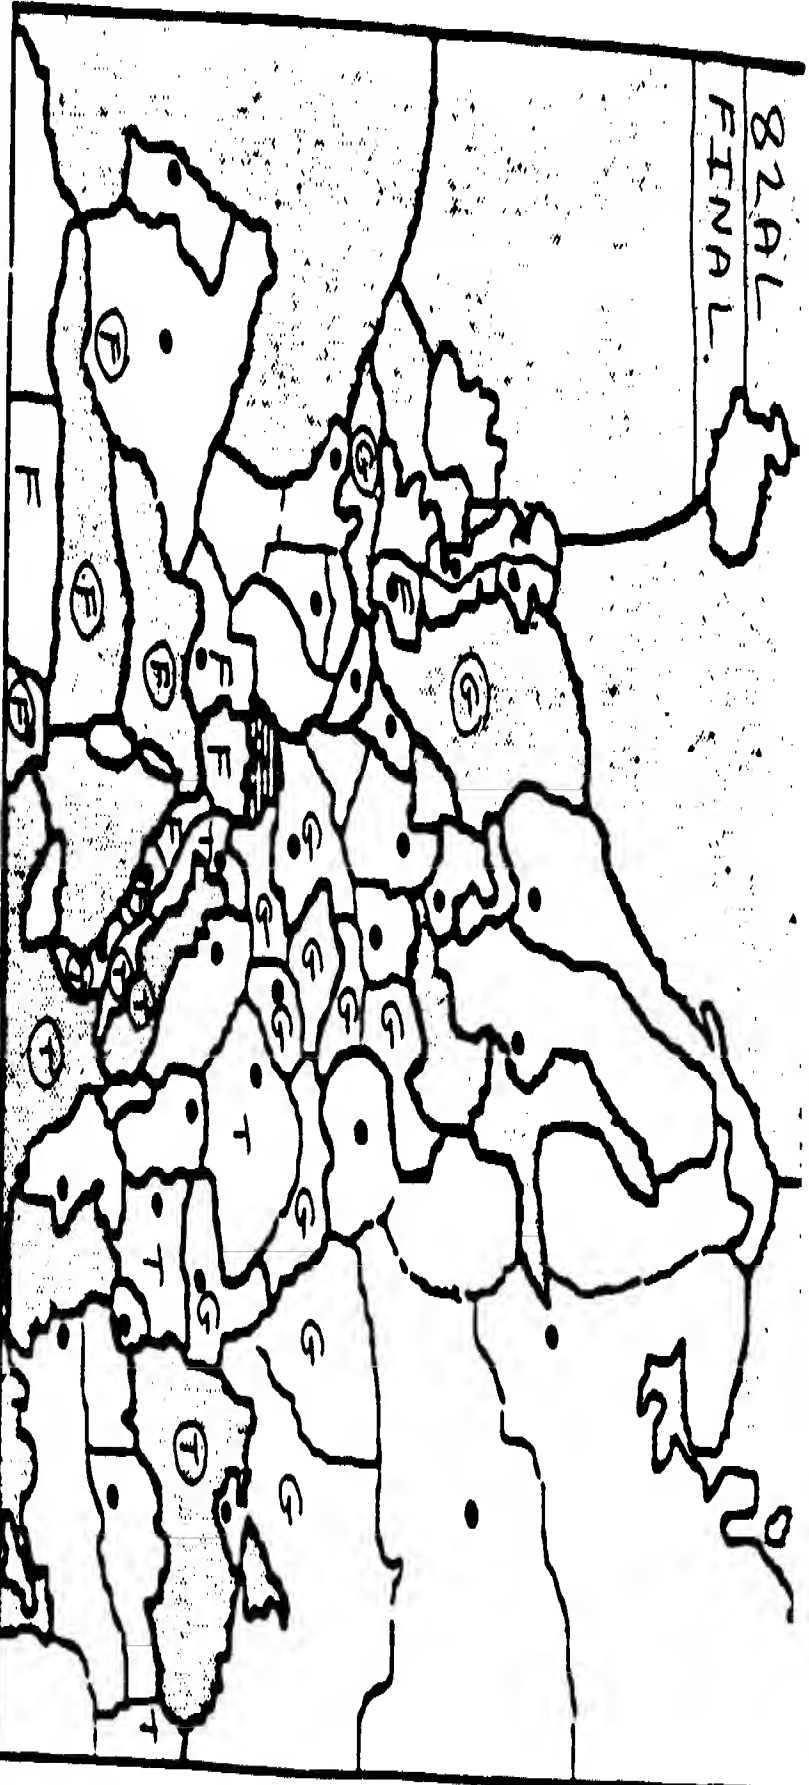

GM-France: You got it.

lew Report:Paris: The latest scandal had the Mar army general begging to the Pesident upon being asked what made him do it, the general reply "They were there (in Bur)." It is rumoured that the resident promptly sent the general to catch a "Rainbow Warrior" in the outh Seas.

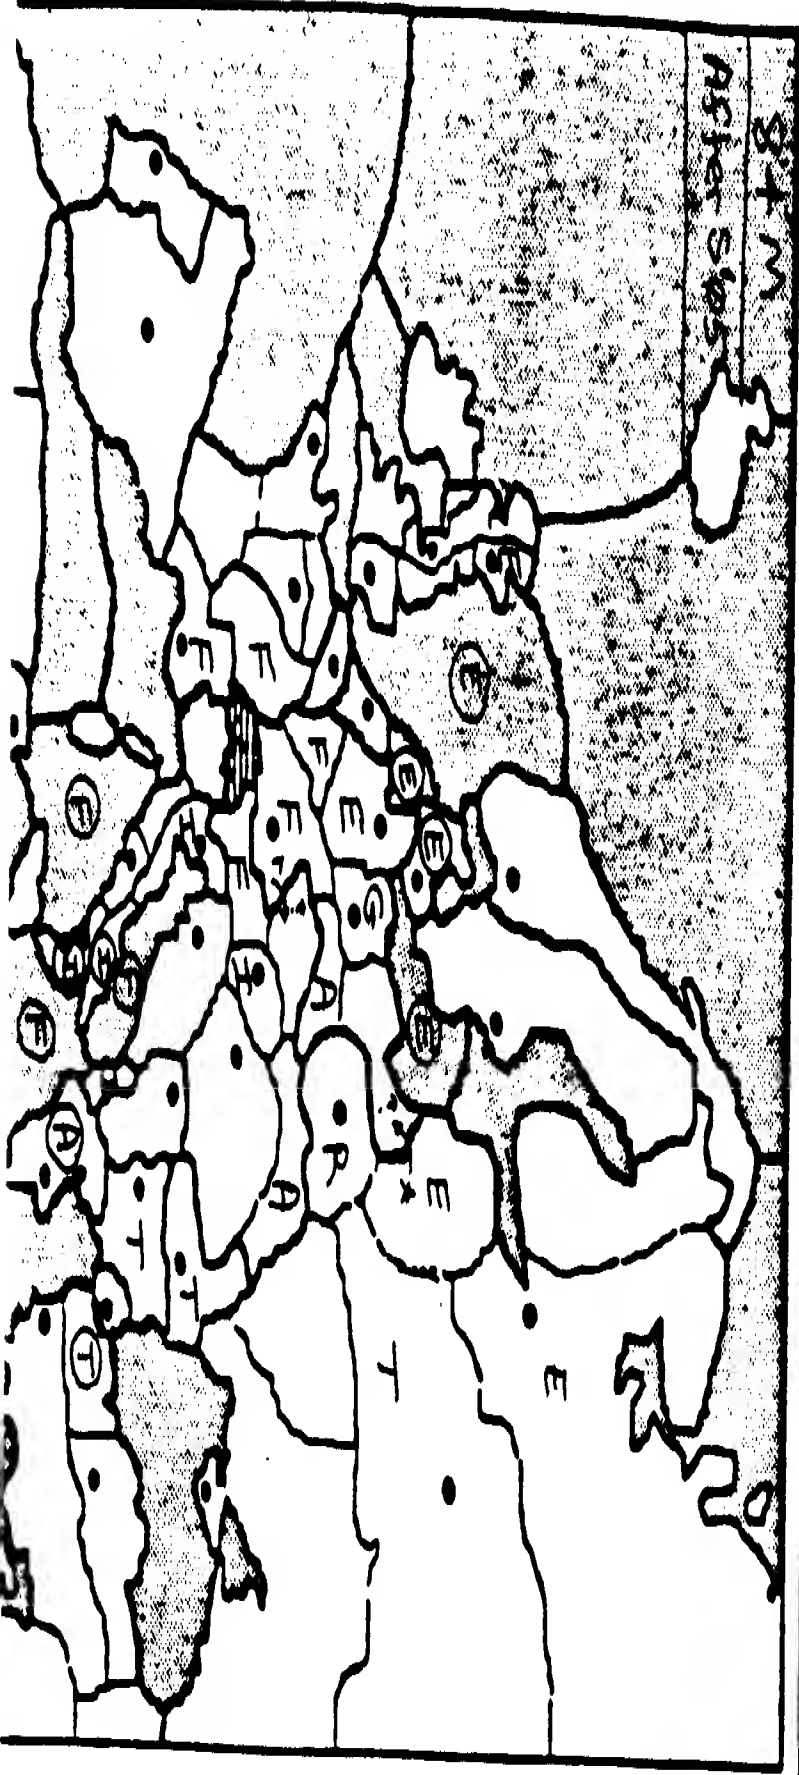

aris-GM: I'm sure I'm right, but I send in orders if you don't agree.

Woody-World: Let's all gang up on the french Canadian!

Ber-Bud: OK, you crazy Canuck. Whadya do? I wound up deciding I couldn't trust your generous offer. If you were honest, perhaps we can yet trust each other.

Marc-Pierre: You were a mite slow in sailing those ships westwards. I think it's going to cost you.

Russia-A/I: Give it up boys!

Russia-Austria Say how come you don't NMR as much in this game as you do in our other game, in Rebel? Have you ever played a game without NMR'ing once?

And last question; How can you put up with the Canadian Postal System?

Russia-Woody I trust you got the fake by now. As you can imagine I have tons here at home. If I can make Byrne-con this Thanksgiving, maybe we should have a barn-fire with them all. There is enough to keep us warm for at least several hours.

Russia-Marc My guess is that you and Ken are going to jump Kathy in HOMERUN. Just ask me and I'm at your service, much like here.

Russia-Marc I see your visiting Norway again. Tell me about the women up there, are they really as beautiful as I hear? Hey how about checking out the chicks in Warsau, maybe even in St. Pete.

Russia-Woody You know I can't believe it, we're fighting for a common goal. How about rooling over in JUTLAND?

A French/German draw declared!

France (Coldiron): F's Rom, Tun, Wes, Lyo, Spa(sc); A's Naf, Tus, Mar, Pie, Lon; 1 unit in retreat

Germany (Givan): F's Eng, Nth; A's Rum, Ukr, Gal, Sev, Sil, Vie, Boh, Tyr, Fru, Mun

Turkey (Carter): F's Bla, Adr, Apx, Nap, Ion; A's Bul, Arm, Bud, Ven; 2 units in retreat

Game Notes

The G/F draw is passed (2 YES, 1 NVR). Complete stats and any endgame statements received will be printed next time. Congratulations to Mark and Evans, thanks to Dave for playing out the position. By the way, there were no original players left in this game.

(Stimmel): As I've grown older I've lowered my expectations. When young I wanted to be a king. Now my humble wish is only to be a railroad president.

(BTMF): One of our competitors forgot to sell a customer's hog commodity futures' investment. Two truckloads of hogs were delivered to customer's home in Beverly Hills.

(BTMF): Our financial advisers are incompetent. This raises the egos of our customers. They enjoy the feeling of knowing more than our employees.

TAPP-PPM: Your guess is as good as mine. Well, perhaps not quite...

PPM-((sic!)): So you thought you could run away with the English pound market, eh?!

PPM-SS&S: When are you going to buy those marks? Costly isn't it?
